

Conference on 'Brexit: Britain's European future after the referendum'

6 July 2016

- 09:00-09:30 Registration & coffee
- 09:30-10:45 Economics session: What now for the UK's economic relationship?
Speakers:
Richard Baldwin, Professor, International Economics, Graduate Institute of International & Development Studies
Thomas Fricke, Chief Economist, European Climate Foundation
Andrew Lilico, Executive Director & Principal, Europe Economics
Ludger Schuknecht, Chief Economist & Director-General for Strategy, International Financial Monetary Policy, Federal Ministry of Finance, Germany
Adair Turner, Chairman, Institute for New Economic Thinking
Chair: Mark Boleat, Chairman, Policy & Resources Committee, City of London Corporation
- 10:45-11:00 Coffee break
- 11:00-12:15 Politics session: What are the prospects for UK-EU relations? Will Brexit hasten EU disintegration?
Speakers:
Douglas Carswell, Member of Parliament for Clacton, House of Commons
Nick Clegg, Member of Parliament for Sheffield Hallam, House of Commons
Malcolm Rifkind, former Foreign Secretary, UK
Konrad Szymański, Secretary of State for European Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Poland
Chair: Charles Grant, Director, Centre for European Reform
- 12:15-12:50 Lunch break
- 13:00-14:30 Foreign policy session: Can Britain play a role in EU foreign policy outside the Union?
Speakers:
Robert Cooper, former Special Adviser to EU HRVP Catherine Ashton
Charles Crawford, former Ambassador to Poland
Bernard Jenkin, Member of Parliament for Harwich & North Essex, House of Commons
Nathalie Tocci, Deputy Director, Istituto Affari Internazionali
Chair: George Robertson, former Secretary-General, NATO
- 14:30 Conference close